

When America loses a diverse free press, controled by a few corporations, this great land will become like South-American bannana republics with the corporations/government on one side and revolutionaries on the other. PLEASE STOP the FCC rule change!!!